Mr. Troutt has been an educator for 9 years. His work with students in AP classes has led to high quality support resulting in higher test scores. Mr. Troutt provides a foundational understanding of history along with a clear analysis of the test to provide students with the clearest path to high AP Exam scores. His support will help students develop a love and deeper appreciation for history and a stronger understanding of the world.

✓ Examine the structure, functions, and principles of the U.S. government, as well as the role of citizens in shaping policy. Engage with case studies and Supreme Court decisions to understand the balance of powers and the challenges of governance.

✓ This course prepares you for the AP Government exam and cultivates civic literacy, persuasive argumentation, and the ability to critically evaluate political systems—skills invaluable for careers in law, politics, journalism, and public policy.
